

SEC Registrants and Venture-Backed Entities

Experience the Difference of Working with a Firm that was Formed to Serve Your Business

From KBF's very beginning, our focus was building a professional services team designed to serve SEC registrants and venture-backed entities. While we have evolved and become a full-service firm with a diverse set of service offerings, KBF has never forgotten its founding mission. This focus has guided the way KBF has assembled the professional service teams it has today.

KBF has identified the technical requirements of these types of enterprises and built specialty teams to address those needs.

Whether a venture-backed or a Fortune 100 business, KBF has a proven track record of delivering value. Our combination of technical know-how and high-touch service differentiates our firm.
